BIO:

Controllin' Your Eardrums—MISTER VINCE

You may have seen him on MTV, BET or heard him rocking the beats Friday Nights on K104.7FM. Perhaps you heard him along side the Grammy Award winning Fatman Scoop during their weekly three hour internationally syndicated radio show, Full Throttle Radio World Wide. Maybe you've experienced him spinning in the world's hottest clubs, anywhere from the Americas, to Europe and Asia. He has electrified the crowds of major international cities such as Hong Kong, St. Tropez, Moscow, Ibiza, Paris & many more.

MISTER VINCE was raised in New York. After having been introduced to the world of DJing, his passion and excitement for music catapulted him onto the fast track to success. Vince made his splash onto the club scene by DJing and promoting local events including the trendy New York City scene. Eventually he would be noticed by Tom Silverman (owner of Tommy Boy records); who designated him as the Director of National Urban Promotions. Later, Vince decided to put his radio production skills to work and launched his own company "PhreQuency Entertainment", which has been accredited for producing the well known syndicated powerhouse shows, Ed Lover and Dr. Dre's "The Jumpoff" and Walt Baby Love's Urban and Adult Contemporary shows. Vince went on to launch a second company "Global Wide Media" that produces and distributes Fatman Scoop & Mister Vince's syndicated show, "Full Throttle Radio World Wide". MISTER VINCE is also the founder of The World Famous Vynil Squad, a DJ/Production Team that is responsible for some of the most popular and energetic remixes that are heard in nightclubs and on radio stations across the globe. MISTER VINCE has performed on the same stage with world renowned artists such as Ne-Yo, 50 Cent, Big Ali and many more. Via his radio show, Vince has interviewed powerhouse celebrities such as, Diddy, Alicia Keys Chris Brown & more. Vince is one of the creative minds behind the innovative DJ software "Kuelt". He is also co-owner of the Mixcity Inc., The company that distributes the Kuelt DJ software.

Today DJ MISTER VINCE continues to be a strong force in the music industry as an International Radio/Club DJ, Business Owner, Record Producer and Mix Show Coordinator. His unique style of mixing has enabled him to captivate any audience, whether it's from the stage of a major event or from the booth of your favorite radio station. His many talents allowed Vince to quickly build a name for himself. In the future look out for MISTER VINCE controlling the crowd in the trendiest night spots and broadcasting across the globe from the biggest radio stations. MISTER VINCE will forever remain a pioneer in this aspect of popular culture.
